DOMESTIC INFELICITY. -

"And to be wroth with one we love, doth work like madness in the brain."

Many years of the married life of Matthew and Lucy Johnson, colored, had passed away and no storm cloud had ever threatened their conjugal tranquility, for she had always hung about his neck like a jewel that had never lost its lustre. But the time of Matthew's misfortunes had arrived, and he now began to regard the delicate attentions of Walter Middleton. also colored, to the false inconstant Lucy with a jealous eye, nor did she keep in the rear of her affections, out of the shot and danger of desire, but encouraged the affections of her cavalier. Long Matthew kept down the Banquo of his fears, but at last it arose and sundry slaps and kicks were the consequence, to which the gentle Desdemona demurred, and without waiting to undergo the fate of the fair Venetian, she appealed to the protection of the law and had her irate sponse punished for his cruel conduct. He, with the vindictive spirit of the cruel Theodore, suffering under the penalty of imposed fines, sought redress for "the invasion of his home" by bringing a charge of adultry against his better half and her cavalier, which charge was, yesterday, dismissed by the considerate dispenser of the law, the Mayor, who, with a due regard for the preservation of so ciety and "the public policy of the realmn, refused to permit the husband to testify against his troubled, white souled consort.

THE MYSTERY OF MISS TANNER. - The Lynchburg Star announces that this lady has been found, but under most deplorable circumstances. It says: - Miss Tanner, after leaving the house of her brother, wandered through fields and woods, under mental excitement which cannot be described, and being almost famished and urterly hopeless, she returned to the house of her brother, and told the terrible story of her ruin. Her statement is that her brother-io-law Samuel Hawkins, effected her ruin by brute force, and that she had been afraid to divulge the fact, lest she should suffer bodily injury at his hands. Finding that concealment of her condition was no longer possible, she went away in a fit of mental derangement, and only returned when she felt that derth-a welcome visitor-was near. The hostile demonstration of her brothers and the no less belligerent attitude of Hawkins have filled the neighborhood with alarm. Should they meet, blood will most assuredly be spilled, and all the indications now point to a collision in which somebody must necessarily pay the penalty of his life.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday:

Dan Barber, colored, was arrested and locked up on suspicion of stealing thirty dollars' worth of carpenter's tools, belonging to W. E. Church and W. A. Sisson, from the new buildings now in progress of erection on Cameron street, near Christ Church. He was afterwards discharged, as no one appeared against Ex-policeman G. Simpson, on complaint of George Steuernagel, was held under security to keep the peace by Justice Padgett.

Cow Bells .- Circumstances alter cases, and though the tipkling of cow bells be mellifluous and even poetical when the music thereof is wafted to us at sunset from distant pastures, the effect is entirely different when the cow wearing the bell remains for hours at a time immediately under our windows, and those hours are the "we sma hours against the t'wall:" at least so thought a gentleman residing on Fairfax street, who, rendered almost frantic by the prolonged ringing of a cow bell under his window about three o'clock, this morning, aroused those of his neighbors who were not already awake, by shooting at the sleep-disturbing beast and driving her away.

COUNTY COURT-Judge Jas. Sangster presiding-Continuation of Yesterday's Pro-CEEDINGS .- H. S. Johnston vs. J.R. Saunders; application dismissed.

Geo. Montague vs. H. S. Johnston; appeal; order entered in this case at last term reseinded and case continued. Farmer Harris vs. H. S. Johnston; appeal order entered in this case at last term recipded and case continued. The Judge designated the January and September terms as the Grand Jury terms of this Count, under the new Grand Jury law. Cauct adjourned till Court in course.

"No CAMELS UP HERE." - Ex-City Sergeant Campbell has an office in the building on Royal street, immediately in rear of the hardware store of Messrs, Creighton & Sou, the third flat of which is occupied by a family who have been so much annoyed latery by persons who, having business with Mr. Campbell, by mistake pass his room, which is on the second floor, and go up the second flight of steps to their floor and knock at and enter their rooms, that they have fastened across the stair landing of their floor an old broom, upon which are printed the words, no camels up here.

A WHARF INJUNCTION. - For some days past the Upper Potomac Steamboat Company (owning the Mary Washington) have been en gaged in deepening the dock at the foot of M street south Washington, adjacent to the Alexandria and Washington ferry, and using the mud to construct a pier near the foot of M st. on the north side. Yesterday afternoon the Potomac Steamboat Company (wining the Arrow) obtained an injunction to restrain the former company from "using in any manner the ripariao privileges of square 472 on the site, left for a public dock, at the foot of M street south, in the city of Washington.

In Luck.-Mr.-Joseph Young, the efficient engineer of the Hydraulion Steam Fire Company, was informed by letter this morning that the old fire company in Philadelphia, to which he formally belonged, had settled some law suits in which it was involved, and had divided the funds on hand among the old members. and that his portion was between eight and une hundred dollars.

OVERBOARD. - Considering the number of people, who fall overboard in this city, the number drowned is exceedingly small. Hardly a week now elapses without the appouncement that some one has been rescued from a watery grave. A boy named Charles Grady, who was "fooling" around King street dock, yesterday afternoon, fell overboard, but was pulled out by those who witnessed the accident.

RUNAWAY.-A horse ran away at Fairfax Court House, yesterday afternoon, smashing the buggy to which he was attached and throwing out Messrs. Barnett and Wilds, who were riding in it, but who were unburt, and who, having caught the runaway and tied together broken parts, successfully reached the stable of Mr. Thornton, in this city, from which the team had been obtained.

HANDSOME HOSE CARRIAGE. - One of the hose carriages belonging to the Hydraulion Steam Fire Company was lately sent to the coach factory of Mr. John Summers for repairs. It was taken back to the engine house this morning, the repairs having been completed, REMANDED TO DUTY .- The crew of the schooner Cyrus Hall, who had shipped at Boston for this port and to return, refused duty yesterday on account of some difficulty with the mate, and were taken before the collector of the port, who, after hearing the case, remanded them back to that vessel, with the exception of one, who was sent to the infirmary.

THE KING IRON. - Messrs. T. G. Brent and H. Matthews have purchased the right for the sale of the King Iron-a flit iron-for Alexandria city and county. The new iron seems to be the very thing for those who have nice and delicately made articles of clothing to be iroped.

APPOINTMENT. - Gen. H. H. Wells, formerly provost marshal of this city, and afterwards provisional Governor of Virginia, has been appointed U. S. District Attorney for the District of Columbia, vice Judge Fisher, compelled to ETHICS OF GOVERNMENT. - Miss Zelia R. Ball, colored, a native of this city, in which she was raised by a relative named Joe Frasier, will deliver a lecture at the Princess-street colored Baptist Church to-morrow night-subject, the Ethics of Government.

ROBBERY.-The stable of the house of Mr. Frank Fish, just beyond Shooter's Hill, on the Leesburg turnpike, was entered by unknown thieves, last night, and robbed of a saddle and all the gear and harness it contained.

TAXES. -As will be seen by notices elsewhere in to-day's paper persons who have not paid their tax bills can save four per cent on their amount by settling them prior to Saturday evening next.

PRECARIOUS CONDITION. - The condition of Mr. Albert Turner, the baggage master injured by the railroad accident last week, was less favorable this morning than it has yet been, and his friends are doubtful of his recovery.

POSTPONEMENT. -- The rite of confirmation to have been performed at Christ Church next Sunday morning has been postponed tempo-

THE WEATHER. - There was a short but for a time heavy shower of rain this afternoon accompanied with lightning and thunder.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co. NEW YORK, July 27 .- Duncan, Sherman & Co., suspended this morning. The suspension causes great excitement in Wall street.

NEW YORK, July 27.-The tollowing annonneement has just been made by Duncan, Sherman & Co.: A careful examination of our business and affairs shows us most unexpectedly that through losses and misfortune our available assets are so reduced that we are compelled to go into liquidation. We reached this conclusion with the deepest regret, but the fact that up to the latest moment our unexampled credit having remained unimpaired would have compelled us, if we continue business, to hazard new obligations and receive new confidences which we were willing to assume for the protection of all our creditors without distiction or preference, we have this day made a general assignment to Hon. Wm. D. Shipman of this city, whose address for all matters connected with our affairs will be at our late banking house, No. 11 Nassau street.

(Signed) DUNCAN, SHERMAN & Co. The Post's financial says: Quietness in Wall street was broken in the second hour of business, by the announcement that the banking house of Duncan, Sherman & Co. had closed their doors and suspended payment. A clap of thunder in a clear sky could not have caused more consternation, and at the Stock Exchange, Gold Exchange, and Cotton Exchange there was great excitement. The liabilities of the house are given at inside of $6,000,000, and it is admitted that the assets fall in value far below this amount. The losses, which have weakened the house, are not entirely of recent making, but cover several years, the heaviest, it is understood, having been in cotton, and the next in securities, which now have doubtful value. It is due to Wm. Butler Duncan to say that had he had the disposition to take the chances the credit of his house was sufficiently good to have enabled him to have got means necessary to bridge it over. His bills on London sold yesterday close on to those of four prime names. As a man of honor, however, he took an honorable course, and stopped while he had something to divide, refusing new business. He endeavored to get new capital enough to pay every demand which could possibly be made ou him, but failing in that, wisely concluded to suspend. Losses by the suspension will fall as a rule where they can be easily borne, although a considerable amount of travellers' credits are outstanding. The Union Bank of London and the Baring Brothers, the London correspondents of the house, are of course able to stand what they will lose. The bank of the State of New York, their home bankers, are, we are told, fully protected. The house was a favorite one for the deposit accounts of corporations, and they can also stand their losses without embarrassment. We do not know yet the amount of bills on Europe, which have been sold here, and are held that the house was carrying any considerable amount of stocks, which have a close market at Stock Exchange.

Races.

SARATOGA, July 24.—The second day's racing opened with a large attendance. The track is heavy. The first race was for the Alabama stakes for fillies foaled in 1872, $100 entrance, half forfeit, $1,000 added, second filly to receive $300 out of the stakes, one mile and an eighth. There were forty entries, and only four starters, viz: Olitipa, Australiud, Invoice, and McDaviel's Asteroid filly. Betting hefore the start was three to one in favor of Olitipa against the field. Olitipa won in a gallop by about 50 yards. Invoice was second. McDaniel's filly third, and Australiad last. R. M. Latham, Time, 2.002 The second race was for a purse of $500, for all ages, three quarters of a mile. Madge, Brigand, Leander, Countess, Spenthrift, and Lloyd's Asteroid colt started. The race was won by the Countess by a neck. Madge was second and Leander third. Time,

Storms.

NEW YORK, July 27.-A Geneva letter states that the storm of the 7th inst., was literally an ice storm, accompanied by a cyclone, which lasting not over fifteen minutes, at midnight, wrecked every window and sky-light, smashed in roofs and did incalculable damage. The suburbs suffered terribly also--all the crops being destroyed. The ice fell in masse.
